Note that the O-Train is out of service, so don't pick any route that includes it. There is a replacement bus but it takes much longer than the train's scheduled times.

Parking

The closest parking lot is P2 off of Campus Avenue. Parking is free on Sunday.

Taxi dropoff

If you are taking a taxi to Carleton tell them to drop you off at the Steacie Building (pronounced Stacey). If you are staying at the Business Inn, you might arrange to share the taxi ride to and from Carleton with other participants staying there.

Main bus stop

On Campus Avenue beside Minto Centre.

Buses to downtown, off-campus hotels, and site of BBQ on August 15. See off-site placemarks for buses to take. Note that all buses arrive at the same stop, so it is important to note the destination of the bus before boarding.

Fare is $3.25 exact change or two bus tickets ($1.25/each) that can be purchased at the convenience store on the lower level of the University Centre. Fare is for one direction only.

On street parking is available but can sometimes be hard to find.

Sightseeing in the Byward Market

The attendees will have some time before dinner at Mother Tucker's to explore the historic Byward Market district. It's filled with shops, restaurants, bars, and food stores.

For shopping, you can reach the Rideau Centre, a large shopping mall, by passing through either the first floor (pedestrian crosswalk) or third floor (pedestrian walkway) of the The Bay store on George Street.

For some good photos, try Major's Hill Park to the west of the Market with its views of the Peace Tower and Parliament, the Chateau Laurier, the National Gallery of Canada, and the Museum of Civilization.
